12. NON-PRACTICE WHILE ON PROBATION. Respondent shall notify the Board or its designee in writing within 15 calendar days of any periods of non-practice lasting more than 30 calendar days and within 15 calendar days of Respondent's return to practice. Non-practice is defined as any period of time Respondent is not practicing medicine as defined in Business and Professions Code sections 2051 and 2052 for at least 40 hours in a calendar month in direct patient care, clinical activity or teaching, or other activity as approved by the Board. If Respondent resides in California and is considered to be in non-practice, Respondent shall comply with all terms and conditions of probation. All time spent in an intensive training program which has been approved by the Board or its designee shall not be considered non-practice and does not relieve Respondent from complying with all the terms and conditions of probation. Practicing medicine in another state of the United States or Federal jurisdiction while on probation with the medical licensing authority of that state or jurisdiction shall not be considered non-practice. A Board-ordered suspension of practice shall not be considered as a period of non-practice.

In the event Respondent's period of non-practice while on probation exceeds 18 calendar months, Respondent shall successfully complete the Federation of State Medical Boards's Special Purpose Examination, or, at the Board's discretion, a clinical competence assessment program that meets the criteria of Condition 18 of the current version of the Board's "Manual of Model Disciplinary Orders and Disciplinary Guidelines" prior to resuming the practice of medicine.

Respondent's period of non-practice while on probation shall not exceed two (2) years.

Periods of non-practice will not apply to the reduction of the probationary term.

Periods of non-practice for a Respondent residing outside of California will relieve Respondent of the responsibility to comply with the probationary terms and conditions with the exception of this condition and the following terms and conditions of probation: Obey All Laws;
General Probation Requirements; Quarterly Declarations; Abstain from the Use of Alcohol and/or Controlled Substances; and Biological Fluid Testing.

If Respondent violates probation in any respect, the Board, after giving Respondent notice and the opportunity to be heard, may revoke probation and carry out the disciplinary order that was stayed. If an Accusation, or Petition to Revoke Probation, or an Interim Suspension Order is filed against Respondent during probation, the Board shall have continuing jurisdiction until the matter is final, and the period of probation shall be extended until the matter is final.
- 15. LICENSE SURRENDER. Following the effective date of this Decision, if Respondent ceases practicing due to retirement or health reasons or is otherwise unable to satisfy the terms and conditions of probation, Respondent may request to surrender his or her license.
 The Board reserves the right to evaluate Respondent's request and to exercise its discretion in determining whether or not to grant the request, or to take any other action deemed appropriate and reasonable under the circumstances. Upon formal acceptance of the surrender, Respondent shall within 15 calendar days deliver Respondent's wallet and wall certificate to the Board or its designee and Respondent shall no longer practice medicine. Respondent will no longer be subject to the terms and conditions of probation. If Respondent re-applies for a medical license, the application shall be treated as a petition for reinstatement of a revoked certificate.
- 16. PROBATION MONITORING COSTS. Respondent shall pay the costs associated with probation monitoring each and every year of probation, as designated by the Board, which may be adjusted on an annual basis. Such costs shall be payable to the Medical Board of California and delivered to the Board or its designee no later than January 31 of each calendar year.

- 3. This Accusation is brought before the Board under the authority of the following laws. All section references are to the Business and Professions Code (Code) unless otherwise indicated.
 - 4. Section 2227 of the Code states, in pertinent part:
- "(a) A licensee whose matter has been heard by an administrative law judge of the Medical Quality Hearing Panel as designated in Section 11371 of the Government Code, or whose default has been entered, and who is found guilty, or who has entered into a stipulation for disciplinary action with the Board may, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter:

 - "(5) Have any other action taken in relation to discipline as the Board or an administrative law judge may deem proper."
 - 5. Section 2234 of the Code, states:

"The Board shall take action against any licensee who is charged with unprofessional conduct. In addition to other provisions of this article, unprofessional conduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- "(a) Violating or attempting to violate, directly or indirectly, assisting in or abetting the violation of, or conspiring to violate any provision of this chapter.
 - "(b) Gross negligence.
- "(c) Repeated negligent acts. To be repeated, there must be two or more negligent acts or omissions. An initial negligent act or omission followed by a separate and distinct departure from the applicable standard of care shall constitute repeated negligent acts.

December 2012 through July 2013. On June 26, 2013, Respondent greeted M.M. in a "peculiar way" saying, "How are you beautiful, you're beautiful as always." Respondent told M.M. that she looked beautiful. This made M.M. uncomfortable. During the first half hour of the visit, Respondent talked to her about his divorce referring to his wife as "cabrona" and claiming that his wife wanted to take his daughter away from him. Respondent showed her a picture of his daughter and told her about a restraining order against him. Respondent said, "I'm a doctor, I don't deserve this" [a divorce and restraining order]. Respondent said to M.M.: "You're a very valuable woman, get a divorce and I will take you."

- 10. On July 18, 2013, M.M. went to Respondent's office with her friend, R.M., to turn in some insurance papers. She did not have an appointment on that day. Respondent told her to have his secretary fill out the insurance papers and to cancel her next appointment, because he had to go to Court. M.M. told Respondent about concerns she had with medication he prescribed to her. M.M. told Respondent that a pharmacist told her that a medication Respondent prescribed, Topamax, reacted badly with her other medications, Lexapro and Xanax. Respondent became furious and yelled at M.M. in an uncontrollable manner stating: "I was on vacation, what do you want me to do! I have problems. I have to go to Court on Monday. My ex-wife is a fucking liar and she wants to take my daughter from me. I am a doctor, I am the one that knows. Assholes! Bastards! I'm going to sue them assholes!" M.M. became frightened and called her husband and put him on speaker phone. M.M. received three calls from Respondent's office that day and she called back because she thought it was to cancel her appointment, but the secretary told her that the doctor wanted to talk to her. M.M. refused to talk with Respondent because she was still scared.
- 11. On July 23, 2013, M.M. went to Respondent's office accompanied by her husband and her son to pick up the insurance papers. Respondent was rude to her husband and asked him to leave the office and called them paranoid. Respondent asked M.M.'s husband if he had brought a firearm; M.M.'s husband replied that they did not. Respondent told M.M. that he would only give her the insurance papers if she went into his office alone. M.M. and her husband told him that was not going to happen and that she was not going to his office alone. Respondent told her husband to shut up and that if he did not like his methods, the door was wide open. M.M.'s son J.M, told Respondent not to talk to his father like that and to have some respect, and Respondent calmed down. M.M. asked Respondent to give her chart to her so that she could see another psychiatrist and Respondent refused. M.M. took the records. Respondent told M.M. that if she did not give it back to him he would call 911 since she was taking his property. M.M. gave Respondent back the records. Respondent yelled at M.M. and called her a paranoid schizophrenic and said, "Bye bye," as he tried to close the door on them. M.M.'s son prevented him from closing the door and Respondent once again asked if they were armed. Respondent ran out of his office and made copies, but did not give M.M. a copy of the full records.

- On or about December 11, 2013, a Medical Board Investigator visited Respondent's office regarding M.M.'s complaints. Respondent was rude and unprofessional and very sarcastic and condescending. Respondent clenched both fists and took a fighting stance, even though the Investigator had one hand on the portfolio and his right hand in his pocket. The investigator informed Respondent that he had failed to pay his medical license fees.
- Respondents records showed that he diagnosed M.M. with: "Atypical Depression 13. and Panic Disorder with Agoraphobia." In a letter addressed to the Board dated December 13, 2013, M.M. noted that Respondent had treated M.M. from November 6, 2012, through June 11, 2013.
- Another physician had previously treated M.M. from December 2011 through 14. 2012; her diagnosis then included "Adjustment Disorder with Mixed Anxiety, Depressed Mood, and Panic Disorder with Agoraphobia." She was provided a temporary total psychiatric disability with respect to her job as a customer service representative. She was prescribed Celexa (an antidepressant) and Xanax (an anti-anxiety medication).
- Respondent altered the written medical records months after his last session with 15. the patient. This was clearly done to validate his defense against the allegations raised by his former patient, M.M.

16. Respondent and his former girlfriend S.P. have a daughter, C.P. From May 9, 2013, through August 22, 2013, Respondent and S.P. were involved in a matter before the Superior Court of California, County of Orange, Family Court regarding the case of S.P. v. Robert T. Perez. A petition to establish parental relationship was filed on May 9, 2013, by S.P. regarding the custody and visitation of Respondent. A Restraining Order was issued by Judge Silbar on June 7, 2013, against Respondent, protecting S.P. and her two daughters aged 17 and 13, and two nephews aged 17 and 11. The Order was amended on August 22, 2013.

17. A Minute Order dated June 7, 2013, noted that Respondent was admonished by the Court for showing disrespect to the Court. The Court described for the record, the disrespectful conduct of Respondent. The Court issued a Restraining Order based on the following:

Respondent's demeanor appeared to be angry. Respondent threatened S.P. of defamation and was involved in disputes with the S.P.'s 17-year-old child. Respondent drove through S.P.'s lawn angrily. Respondent was awarded monitored visitations and initially ordered to complete an eight-week anger management course. A stipulated judgment on August 22, 2013, modified the visitation for unmonitored visits.

18. Respondent exhibited narcissistic and sociopathic type behaviors towards his patient, M.M. Respondent exhibited similar behavior toward his ex-girlfriend S.P., who is the mother of his 10-year-old daughter. The documents filed in Family Court in the Superior Court of Orange County regarding the case of S.P. v. Robert Perez, indicate a pattern of threatening behavior to his ex-girlfriend, e.g., making documented multiple threats to call the Immigration Service to have S.P. deported. He threatened to refuse to pay child support – which is illegal in California – and to obtain full custody of their daughter. The court documents indicated that Respondent advised S.P. that he made an "anonymous tip" to the Orange County Police Department to report her for not having a driver's license and for working illegally (she was previously employed by him). He wrote numerous letters of a threatening nature to S.P. alleging she was mentally ill and suffered from Bipolar Disorder. He threatened to only have a cash practice so he didn't have to pay her child support. The judge opined that Respondent was disrespectful to the Court and issued a Restraining Order against him protecting S.P.

The threatening letters to his ex-girlfriend do not fall into the normal range of understandably disgruntled family law litigants. Respondent used his power, position and money to threaten S.P., showing that he had no regard for others, especially the mother of his young daughter. He was subsequently admonished by the Court and an order in June 2013 to complete an eight-week anger management course was modified to a January 16, 2014, order to complete a 22 – week anger management program after he continued his threatening behavior towards S.P. while under the scrutiny of the judge.

- 19. Respondent was grossly negligent in both his behavior and in the care and treatment of a patient as follows:
- A. The standard of care provides that a physician should not share intimate details of his personal life with a patient. Respondent failed to maintain a professional demeanor and boundaries with his patient, M.M., by repeatedly discussing his personal life, specifically regarding a contentious custody battle with the mother of his ten-year-old daughter.
- B. Respondent used profanity and made sexual innuendoes to M.M. He exhibited unprofessional behavior by being rude, sarcastic, condescending and threatening and by yelling and engaging in verbal outbursts, thereby exhibiting an unprofessional demeanor, which was unbecoming to a member in good standing of the medical profession.
- C. Respondent made condescending, verbally abusive statements, and yelled at the Medical Board Investigator during the course of this investigation, thereby exhibiting an unprofessional demeanor, which was unbecoming to a member in good standing of the medical profession.
- D. Respondent was rude, angry, and disrespectful towards an Orange County Superior Court Judge during his Family Court trial, thereby exhibiting an unprofessional demeanor, which was unbecoming to a member in good standing of the medical profession. This resulted in a restraining order issued against Respondent to protect S.P.
