If the offense is possession of a controlled substance (Penalty Group 1 or 2), LSD (5 abuse units or less), or marihuana (1 lb. Or less) or fraud (by prescription for schedule II or III drugs), and the Defendant has no prior felony conviction, judge shall suspend sentence and place the Defendant on probation.

2. The recommendation of the District Attorney is not binding on the court. 3. If the punishment assessed does not exceed the punishment recommended by the District Attorney and agreed to by Defendant and his attorney, Defendant must request and receive the trial court's permission before he or she may pursue an appeal on any matter in his or her case, except for those matters raised by written motions filed prior to trial.

4. I am not (circle one) a citizen or legal resident of the United States of America. If not a US citizen, I am a citizen of China and hereby waive all potential rights afforded me by treaty. If I am not a citizen of the United States of America, a plea of guilty or no contest for the offense charged may result in deportation, the exclusion from admission to this country, or the denial of naturalization under federal law.

5. If I am convicted of or placed on deferred adjudication for an offense triggering the Sex Offender Registration Program, Defendant will be required to meet the registration requirements of that law. For a list of offenses triggering sex offender registration and the details of that law, see Chapter 62, CCP. Defendant understands that the sex offender registration laws include many details other than those listed in these admonitions, are subject to change, and may be applied retroactively. Failure to comply with the registration law is a felony criminal offense.

6. If I am placed on deferred adjudication, upon violation of a condition of community supervision, the Defendant may be arrested and detained. The Defendant is entitled to a hearing limited to the determination by the judge whether it proceeds with an adjudication of guilt on the original charge. After an adjudication of guilt, all proceedings, including assessment of punishment, pronouncement of sentence, granting of community supervision, and defendant's appeal continue as if the adjudication of guilt had not been deferred.

I, Jackson, Stephen D, have reviewed and explained all of the above indicated admonishments with the Defendant. I believe the Defendant is competent and aware of the consequences of the plea.

I waive the right to service of a copy of the indictment or information and the time allowed by law to file motions and pleadings and to prepare for trial and the discovery of exculpatory evidence, if any exists. The Defendant waives the right to a trial, including the right to trial by jury and a speedy trial, the appearance and confrontation and cross-examination of the witnesses against him, the right to remain silent, and the right to not to be compelled to give evidence against himself (at both the guilt and punishment stages).
