JURISDICTION

3. This First Amended Accusation is brought before the Board, under the authority of the following laws. All section references are to the Business and Professions Code (Code) unless otherwise indicated.

4. Section 2220 of the Code states:

Except as otherwise provided by law, the board may take action against all persons guilty of violating this chapter. . .

5. Section 2227 of the Code states:

(a) A licensee whose matter has been heard by an administrative law judge of the Medical Quality Hearing Panel as designated in Section 11371 of the Government Code, or whose default has been entered, and who is found guilty, or who has entered into a stipulation for disciplinary action with the board, may, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter:

(1) Have his or her license revoked upon order of the board.

(2) Have his or her right to practice suspended for a period not to exceed one year upon order of the board.

(3) Be placed on probation and be required to pay the costs of probation monitoring upon order of the board.

(4) Be publicly reprimanded by the board. The public reprimand may include a requirement that the licensee complete relevant educational courses approved by the board.

(5) Have any other action taken in relation to discipline as part of an order of probation, as the board or an administrative law judge may deem proper.

6. Section 2234 of the Code states:

The board shall take action against any licensee who is charged with unprofessional conduct. In addition to other provisions of this article, unprofessional conduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:

3 (2) When the standard of care requires a change in the diagnosis, act, or omission that constitutes the negligent act described in paragraph (1), including, but 4 not limited to, a reevaluation of the diagnosis or a change in treatment, and the licensee's conduct departs from the applicable standard of care, each departure 5 constitutes a separate and distinct breach of the standard of care.

7 7. Section 2266 of the Code states:

8 The failure of a physician and surgeon to maintain adequate and accurate 9 records relating to the provision of services to their patients constitutes unprofessional conduct.

10 COST RECOVERY

11 8. Section 125.3 of the Code states:

12 (a) Except as otherwise provided by law, in any order issued in resolution of a disciplinary proceeding before any board within the department or before the 13 Osteopathic Medical Board, upon request of the entity bringing the proceeding, the administrative law judge may direct a licensee found to have committed a violation or 14 violations of the licensing act to pay a sum not to exceed the reasonable costs of the investigation and enforcement of the case.

16 (b) In the case of a disciplined licensee that is a corporation or a partnership, the order may be made against the licensed corporate entity or licensed partnership.

17 (c) A certified copy of the actual costs, or a good faith estimate of costs where actual costs are not available, signed by the entity bringing the proceeding or its 18 designated representative shall be prima facie evidence of reasonable costs of investigation and prosecution of the case. The costs shall include the amount of 19 investigative and enforcement costs up to the date of the hearing, including, but not limited to, charges imposed by the Attorney General.

21 (d) The administrative law judge shall make a proposed finding of the amount of reasonable costs of investigation and prosecution of the case when requested 22 pursuant to subdivision (a). The finding of the administrative law judge with regard to costs shall not be reviewable by the board to increase the cost award. The board 23 may reduce or eliminate the cost award, or remand to the administrative law judge if the proposed decision fails to make a finding on costs requested pursuant to 24 subdivision (a).

25 (e) If an order for recovery of costs is made and timely payment is not made as directed in the board's decision, the board may enforce the order for repayment in any 26 appropriate court. This right of enforcement shall be in addition to any other rights the board may have as to any licensee to pay costs.

1 (g) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the board shall not renew or reinstale the license of any licensee who has failed to pay all of the costs ordered under this section.

3 (2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the board may, in its discretion, conditionally renew or reinstate for a maximum of one year the license of any 4 licensee who demonstrates financial hardship and who enters into a formal agreement with the board to reimburse the board within that one-year period for the unpaid 5 costs.

6 (h) All costs recovered under this section shall be considered a reimbursement for costs incurred and shall be deposited in the fund of the board recovering the costs 7 to be available upon appropriation by the Legislature.

8 (i) Nothing in this section shall preclude a board from including the recovery of the costs of investigation and enforcement of a case in any stipulated settlement.

9 (j) This section does not apply to any board if a specific statutory provision in 10 that board's licensing act provides for recovery of costs in an administrative disciplinary proceeding.

11 FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

12 (Gross Negligence)

13 9. Respondent has subjected his Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate No. G 46937
14 to disciplinary action under sections 2227 and 2234, as defined by section 2234, subdivision (b), 15 of the Code, in that he committed gross negligence in his care and treatment of Patients A,¹ as 16 more particularly alleged hereinafter:

17 10. On or about July 31, 2014, Patient A, a 41-year-old male, presented to Dr. H.R. for a 18 urology consultation. According to the Progress Notes for this visit, Patient A had a three-month 19 history of a perineal² mass that increased in size from a pea to approximately 1 centimeter. The 20 mass was mildly tender causing pain in the right teste. An ultrasound and MRI of the teste was 21 negative for a mass or other findings. Dr. H.R. reviewed the MRI images and confirmed no 22 visible mass. Patient A denied trauma, hematuria, instrumentation, or previous surgery. Patient 23 A had considerable anxiety. There was a concern of urethral cancer.

24 11. Respondent assisted Dr. H.R. with the examination of Patient A. They performed a 25 cystoscopy to assess the possibility of a urethral mass. The cystoscopy was negative for a 26 urethral mass.

27 ¹ References to "Patient A" herein are used to protect patient privacy.

28 ² In males, the perineum is the area between the anus and the scrotum.

1 12. According to the "Review of Systems" section of the Progress Notes, Patient A was 2 positive for testicular pain. However, he was negative for dysuria, hematuria, flank pain, 3 discharge, penile swelling, difficulty urinating, genital sores, and penile pain. He was noted to be 4 nervous and anxious. On physical exam, a one centimeter lesion was identified on the left
5 proximal crus at the junction with the spongiosum.³ The lesion was described as firm, mobile,
6 appeared to be proximally attached, and mildly tender.

7 13. According to the "Plan" section of the Progress Notes, Patient A had a "perineal mass 8 adjacent to the penile crus and urethra" with groin, perineal, and testicular pain. He was noted to 9 be anxious about the lesion. Following examination of the lesion, Respondent and Dr. H.R.
10 recommended excision. The procedure of excision and the risks and complications of bleeding, 11 pain, infection, further surgery or procedure, and anesthetic complications were explained to 12 Patient A, along with the possibility of needing a catheter following the operation. Patient A's 13 questions were answered, and he was noted to be "relieved at the negative urethroscopy and the 14 low probability of this [mass] being malignant." Surgery would be scheduled with Respondent 15 and the consent was signed.

16 14. At the end of the visit, Patient A and Respondent discussed and signed an "Informed 17 Consent Progress Note." Respondent filled out the consent form. Next to the name of the 18 procedure, Respondent wrote: "local excision of scrotal mass, possible cystoscopy." Next to the 19 nature of the procedure, Respondent wrote: "remove scrotal mass." Next to the common risks
20 and side effects related to the procedure and recuperation period, Respondent wrote: "bleeding[,] 21 infection, possible injury to surrounding tissue[,] urethra." Next to the potential benefits of the 22 procedure, Respondent wrote: "remove mass for diagnosis." Next to the likelihood of achieving 23 treatment goals, Respondent wrote: "90%." Next to the reasonable alternatives to the procedure, 24 Respondent wrote: "medical therapy." Next to the risks, side effects, and benefits of the 25 alternatives and of receiving no treatment, Respondent wrote: "progression of mass." According 26 to the consent form, the nature of the procedure, the related risks and side effects, the potential

27 ³ The penile shaft is composed of three erectile columns – the corpus spongiosum and the 28 two corpora cavernosa. The corpus spongiosum is the mass of erectile tissue that lies along the underside of the penis, surrounds the urethra, and is located below the pair of corpus cavernosa.

1 benefits, the likelihood of success, the reasonable alternatives, and the risks, side effects, and 2 benefits of the alternatives and no treatment were to be discussed with the patient in lay,
3 understandable terms. The consent form, however, did not document, nor did Respondent discuss 4 with Patient A, the possibility that a significant portion of Patient A's erectile tissue might be 5 resected⁴ during the procedure resulting in permanent erectile dysfunction not amenable to 6 satisfactory surgical reconstruction.

7 15. On or about August 7, 2014, Patient A had a preoperative visit with a nurse
8 practitioner. According to the Progress Notes for this visit, Patient A was scheduled for surgery
9 with Respondent on or about August 12, 2014, for "[l]ocal excision of scrotal mass, possible 10 cystoscopy."

11 16. On or about August 12, 2014, Patient A's surgery took place at a surgical center, with 12 Respondent as the surgeon. In his Operative Report, Respondent described the preoperative
13 diagnosis as "[p]erineal/scrotal mass" and the procedure performed as "[e]xcision of perineal 14 mass with proximal corporal resection." When discussing the indication for the procedure, 15 Respondent referenced the July 31, 2014 visit with Patient A. Respondent wrote, "I saw him in 16 Faculty Medical Offices and discussed the findings. He understands that the mass needed to be 17 excised for pathology purposes because of its apparent rapid onset of mass effect. He was told 18 preoperatively that the mass was adherent to the urethra and structures of the penis and for this 19 reason, injury to surrounding structures is possible." Until the surgery, however, the findings 20 concerning the adherent nature of the mass were not known to Respondent. Therefore, 21 Respondent could not have told Patient A about these findings "preoperatively," including during 22 the July 31, 2014 visit.

23 17. According to the Operative Report, Respondent placed a midline perineal incision 24 extending up into the base of the scrotum, exposing the bulbar urethra. The mass was palpated on 25 the right side of the bulbar urethra and appeared to be very adherent to the base of the corpus 26 cavernosum on the right. Following additional dissection, the mass was found to be extending 27 anterior to the bulbar urethra and proximal penile urethra and extending across the midline into 28 ⁴ Resection generally refers to the removal of tissue or part or all of an organ.

1 the corpora of the left side of the corpus cavernosum. Respondent noted that the mass "appeared
2 to be extremely adherent to both corpora lending credence to the fact that this appeared to be a
3 malignant process." Respondent then noted, "Consideration was given to resecting just a biopsy⁵
4 versus resection of the entire mass, which ultimately was completed." According to Respondent,
5 the situation was not a medical emergency. Respondent proceeded to resect the proximal portion 6 of the right corpus cavernosum, along with the perineal mass extending across the midline portion 7 of the left proximal corpus cavernosum. Respondent noted that the right corpus cavernosum was 8 attenuated and shortened due to the amount necessary to resect the entire mass. A specimen of 9 the perineal mass was sent to pathology.

10 18. Prior to the surgery, Respondent and Patient A briefly discussed the surgical center's 11 consent form entitled, "Informed Consent to Treat and Disclose Information," and Patient A 12 signed the form. On the back of the consent form, Patient A identified his ex-wife as the person 13 to whom his protected health information may be disclosed "for purposes of communicating 14 results, findings, and care decisions[.]"

15 19. According to the consent form, Patient A was affirming his understanding "that the 16 following surgical, medical and/or diagnostic procedures are planned for me and I voluntarily
17 consent and authorize those procedures: LOCAL EXCISION OF SCROTAL MASS; POSSIBLE 18 CYSTOSCOPY." Moreover, the consent form provided that Patient A was affirming he had been 19 informed of "the potential risks, benefits, and side effects of the proposed procedure . . . , the 20 reasonable alternatives to the procedure . . . [and] the risks, benefits and side effects related to the 21 alternatives and the risk of not receiving the procedure or treatments discussed." The consent 22 form also provided that Patient A was consenting to "the performance of operations and 23 procedures in addition to or different from those now planned whether or not arising from 24 presently foreseen conditions, which the doctor named below or his associates or assistants may 25 consider necessary or advisable during the operation or procedure." The consent form, however, 26 did not document, nor did Respondent discuss with Patient A, the possibility that a significant

27
28 ⁵ A biopsy refers to a sample of tissue taken from the body for examination by a pathologist.

1 portion of Patient A's erectile tissue might be resected during the procedure resulting in 2 permanent erectile dysfunction not amenable to satisfactory surgical reconstruction.

3 20. On or about August 14, 2014, the pathology results of the perineal mass specimen
4 were received and were negative for malignancy. The specimen was 8.0 x 5.0 x 2.5 centimeters
5 in size, comprising of two cavities extending the length of the specimen. The pathology revealed 6 a benign cystic lymphangioma and adjacent small nodule showing calcification.

7 21. Following the surgery, Patient A experienced erectile dysfunction, deviation of his 8 penis to the right side of his body, continuing penile pain, and urinary problems, among other 9 issues.

10 22. Respondent committed gross negligence in his care and treatment of Patient A, which 11 included, but was not limited to, the following:

12 A. Respondent failed to biopsy intraoperatively Patient A's mass without 13 performing a complete resection of the mass, when such resection would include the 14 bilateral corpora cavernosa with resultant permanent erectile dysfunction; and 15 B. Respondent proceeded with a surgery that far exceeded the discussed and 16 consented procedure of removal of the one-centimeter scrotal mass.

17 SECOND CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

18 (Repeated Negligent Acts)

19 23. Respondent has subjected his Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate No. G 46937 to 20 disciplinary action under sections 2227 and 2234, as defined by section 2234, subdivision (c), of 21 the Code, in that he committed repeated negligent acts in his care and treatment of Patients A, as 22 more particularly alleged hereinafter:

23 24. Paragraphs 10 through 22, above, are hereby incorporated by reference and re-alleged 24 as if fully set forth herein.

25 25. Respondent committed further repeated negligent acts in his care and treatment of 26 Patient A, which included, but were not limited to, the following:

27 ///

28 ///

A. Respondent failed to obtain proper informed consent from Patient A in that Respondent did not document, nor did he discuss with Patient A, the possibility of that a significant portion of Patient A's erectile tissue might be resected during the procedure resulting in permanent erectile dysfunction not amenable to satisfactory surgical reconstruction.

THIRD CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Failure to Maintain Adequate and Accurate Medical Records)

26. Respondent has subjected his Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate No. G 46937 to disciplinary action under sections 2227 and 2234, as defined by section 2266, of the Code, in that he failed to maintain adequate and accurate records regarding his care and treatment of Patient A, as more particularly alleged in paragraphs 10 through 25, above, which are hereby incorporated by reference and re-alleged as if fully set forth herein.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, Complainant requests that a hearing be held on the matters herein alleged, and that following the hearing, the Medical Board of California issue a decision:

1. Revoking or suspending Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate No. G 46937, issued to Respondent Gary R. Barker, M.D.;

2. Revoking, suspending or denying approval of Respondent Gary R. Barker, M.D.'s authority to supervise physician assistants, pursuant to section 3527 of the Code, and advanced practice nurses;
