2. Respondent Thomas Ross Evans, M.D. (Respondent) is represented in this proceeding by attorney Dennis R. Thelen, Esq., whose address is: 5001 E. Commercenter Drive, Suite 300, Bakersfield, CA 93309.

3. On or about September 10, 1975, the Board issued Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate No. G 30778 to Thomas Ross Evans, M.D. (Respondent). The Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate was in full force and effect at all times relevant to the charges brought in Accusation No. 800-2016-026775, and will expire on January 31, 2022, unless renewed.

JURISDICTION

4. Accusation No. 800-2016-026775 was filed before the Board, and is currently pending against Respondent. The Accusation and all other statutorily required documents were properly served on Respondent on July 18, 2019. Respondent timely filed his Notice of Defense contesting the Accusation.

5. A copy of Accusation No. 800-2016-026775 is attached as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by reference.

Respondent does not contest that, at an administrative hearing, complainant could establish a prima facie case with respect to the charges and allegations in Accusation No. 800-2016-026775, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A, and that he has thereby subjected his Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate, No. G 30778 to disciplinary action. Respondent agrees that if he ever petitions for early termination or modification of probation, or if the Board ever petitions for revocation of probation, all of the charges and allegations contained in Accusation No. No. 800-2016-026775 shall be deemed true, correct and fully admitted by respondent for purposes of that proceeding or any other licensing proceeding involving respondent in the State of California.

11. Respondent agrees that his Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate is subject to discipline and he agrees to be bound by the Board's probationary terms as set forth in the Disciplinary Order below.

CONTINGENCY

Respondent understands and agrees that counsel for Complainant and the staff of the Medical Board of California may communicate directly with the Board regarding this stipulation and settlement, without notice to or participation by Respondent or his counsel. By signing the stipulation, Respondent understands and agrees that he may not withdraw his agreement or seek to rescind the stipulation prior to the time the Board considers and acts upon it. If the Board fails to adopt this stipulation as its Decision and Order, the Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order shall be of no force or effect, except for this paragraph, it shall be inadmissible in any legal action between the parties, and the Board shall not be disqualified from further action by having considered this matter.

13. Respondent agrees that if he ever petitions for early termination or modification of probation, or if an accusation and/or petition to revoke probation is filed against him before the Board, all of the charges and allegations contained in Accusation No. 800-2016-026775 shall be deemed true, correct and fully admitted by respondent for purposes of any such proceeding or any other licensing proceeding involving Respondent in the State of California.

14. The parties understand and agree that Portable Document Format (PDF) and facsimile copies of this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order, including PDF and facsimile signatures thereto, shall have the same force and effect as the originals.

15. In consideration of the foregoing admissions and stipulations, the parties agree that the Board may, without further notice or opportunity to be heard by the Respondent, issue and enter the following Disciplinary Order:

Standard of Care

60. The standard of care for a physical examination includes an initial examination, focused towards the patient's presenting illness. The physician should perform subsequent follow-up examinations to determine the course of the illness, effect of treatment, intended and adverse effects. The physical examination should include documentation of vital signs.

61. The standard of care for the treatment plan, objectives and course of illness while prescribing controlled substances requires the physician to state objectives by which the treatment plan can be evaluated. The objectives may include pain relief and/or function, and should indicate if any further diagnostic evaluations or other treatments are planned.

62. The standard of care is for the physician to discuss the risks and benefits of the use of controlled substances and other available treatment modalities with the patient prior to prescribing controlled substances.

63. The standard of care is for the physician to periodically review the course of pain treatment and make appropriate modifications of treatment based on the patient's progress or lack of progress, depending on the evaluation towards treatment objectives.

64. The standard of care requires the physician to consider referring the patient for additional evaluation and treatment in order to achieve treatment objectives, especially with complex cases. The physician should give special attention to those patients who are at higher risk for misuse, including patients with a history of substance abuse/addiction or co-morbid mental health conditions. These patients require extra care, monitoring, documentation, and consultation with specialists, including medicine, pain management, and/or psychiatry.

65. The standard of care requires the physician to maintain accurate and complete records, demonstrating a history and examination along with evaluations, consultations, treatment plans, objectives, informed consent documentation, medications prescribed and documentation of periodic review.

Departures

66. Respondent failed to conduct a focused physical examination of Patient A's back until January 27, 2014, several months after Patient A initially presented with a back injury. Respondent failed to determine whether Patient A suffered from vertebral tenderness to palpation. Respondent did not document Patient A's pulse, respiratory rate or temperature during any of his visits. Respondent documented that Patient A's heart was not in distress, and had a regular rate and rhythm, but failed to actually obtain Patient A's pulse and respiratory rate. Respondent's failure to assess and document Patient A's pulse and respiratory rate prevented him from evaluating the effects of prescribed medicine, including respiratory depression and bradycardia or tachycardia. Respondent's failure to assess and document Patient A's temperature prevented him from ruling out any possible infectious process. Respondent prescribed antibiotics on several occasions during the four years evaluated, but failed to document Patient A's temperature to support the presumption of a possible bacterial infection. Respondent failed to conduct a more thorough physical examination at each visit, and failed to assess Patient A's vital signs, which constitutes a separate and distinct simple departure at each visit.

67. Respondent documented regular visits with Patient A during which Patient A reported pain relief and improvement with function. Respondent documented discussion of multiple treatment modalities, but failed to pursue additional diagnostic work up including lab work, imaging studies or referrals to specialists. Despite failing to modify the treatment plan in response to Patient A's improvement or to conduct an adequate diagnostic workup, Respondent continued to prescribe controlled substances to Patient A. Respondent failed to adequately document and/or utilize an adequate treatment plan and objectives in the care of Patient A, which constitutes a departure from the standard of care.

68. Respondent failed to document a discussion of the risk and benefits of controlled substances prior to prescribing controlled substances to Patient A. Despite Patient A's history of substance abuse, Respondent prescribed controlled substances to him for more than seven months before documenting a discussion about the risks and benefits of controlled substances. Respondent prescribed controlled substances for more than ten months prior to obtaining a signed pain management agreement. Respondent's failure to adequately provide informed consent to Patient A regarding controlled substances constitutes a departure from the standard of care.

69. Respondent repeatedly prescribed controlled substances to Patient A, absent regular visits with Patient A. Respondent continued to prescribe Patient A Norco, without documenting any discussion with Patient A regarding the need to taper off controlled substances. Respondent's efforts to introduce alternative medications to controlled substances for Patient A were inadequate, because he continued to prescribe Norco alongside the new medications. Respondent's efforts to lower the dose of controlled substances to Patient A were short lived and inadequate. Each time Respondent failed to perform an adequate periodic review related to the prescribing of controlled substances to Patient A constitutes a separate and distinct departure from the standard of care.

70. Respondent failed to obtain consultations from specialists related to Patient A's back pain. Patient A had a history of substance abuse, depression, anxiety, and presented with withdrawal symptoms when he stopped taking controlled substances. Despite Patient A's complicated history, withdrawal symptoms, and significant increase in the dosage of his antidepressant medication, Respondent did not refer him to a pain management specialist, addiction medicine specialist or a psychiatrist. Respondent's failure to refer Patient A to specialists related to his prescribing of controlled substances constitutes a departure from the standard of care.

71. Respondent's medical records for Patient A frequently contained an insufficient documentation of the history of present illness, and failed to contain Patient A's vital signs. Respondent commonly failed to perform and/or document a focused physical examination of Patient A's back, the source of his pain complaints. Respondent's documentation of the objectives and treatment plan for Patient A were often inadequate, frequently only including a list of prescribed pain medications. After prescribing Hysingla ER by telephone, Respondent failed to document any mention of the prescription in the next office visit medical records, and continued to prescribe Patient A Norco. Respondent's medical records for Patient A repeatedly failed to include adequate documentation, which constitute separate and distinct departures from the standard of care.

SECOND CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Failure to Maintain Adequate and Accurate Medical Records)

72. Respondent has subjected his Physician's and Surgeon's License No. G 30778 to disciplinary action under section 2227, as defined by section 2266, of the Code, in that he failed to maintain adequate and accurate records in connection with his care and treatment of Patient A, as more particularly alleged in paragraphs 22 through 71, which are hereby incorporated by reference and realleged as if fully set forth herein.

DISCIPLINARY CONSIDERATIONS

73. On or about September 17, 2007, in a prior disciplinary action entitled In the Matter of the Accusation Against Thomas Ross Evans, M.D. before the Medical Board of California, in Case No. 08-2005-164520, Respondent's Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate No. G 30778 was revoked, with the revocation stayed and Respondent placed on probation for five (5) years for allegations involving gross negligence, repeated negligent acts, and failure to maintain adequate and accurate medical records. That decision is now final and is incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

74. On or about March 26, 2001, in a prior disciplinary action entitled In the Matter of the Accusation Against Thomas Ross Evans, M.D. before the Medical Board of California, in Case No. 08-1997-74202, Respondent's Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate No. G 30778 was reprimanded for failing to adequately document a patient's medical record, and authorizing a prescription refill without scheduling a follow-up examination. That decision is now final and is incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.
